Orthopaedic Surgeon with fellowship training in Hand

Medical Associates Clinic, a physician-owned multispecialty group practice located in Dubuque, Iowa, is seeking a BE/BC Orthopaedic Surgeon with fellowship training in Hand to join the Musculoskeletal Department.

Opportunity Details
Medical Associates Clinic, a physician-owned multispecialty group practice located in Dubuque, Iowa, is seeking a BE/BC Orthopaedic Surgeon with fellowship training in Hand to join the Musculoskeletal Department. This uniquely comprehensive Orthopaedic Department consists of five Orthopaedic Surgeons whose subspecialty training includes Sports Medicine, Trauma, Spine, Hand and Adult Reconstructive Surgeries. Departmental staff also includes a Pediatrician and a General Practitioner (both are fellowship trained in Sports Medicine), a Rheumatologist, two Physiatrists, two Physician Assistants, and two Nurse Practitioners.

Details of the practice include:
- 100 percent elective Hand practice
- Occupational Therapist with Hand certification devoted to Ortho Hand Surgery
- Position includes general call of one in six at one hospital (Level II Trauma)

Medical Associates Clinic
Medical Associates Clinic is a well-established multispecialty group practice with over 140 providers. The group was founded in 1924 and is Iowa’s oldest multispecialty group practice. In 1982, Medical Associates developed the region’s first provider-owned health plan to control the managed care component of the practice. Today, Medical Associates Clinic is the area’s leading health care provider and only multispecialty group practice. The group has received multiple recognitions including MGMA’s “Better Performing Groups” and U.S. News and World Report’s “America’s Best Health Plans” and continually provides its physician owners annual incomes well above national averages.

Dubuque, Iowa
With a population of 60,000 and a drawing base area of over 250,000, Dubuque is a city where the simple pleasures and modern conveniences of life are balanced. Located along the scenic rolling hills of the Mississippi River, Dubuque offers a beautiful suburban-like lifestyle and has been rated among the most “livable” cities in the United States. The region is known for higher education, healthcare, commercial, retail and entertainment services. Dubuque is a little over a one hour drive from both Madison and Iowa City, and is three hours from Chicago.

City of Dubuque

Recruiter
Jamika Smith
(217) 337-4108
Jamika.Smith@stratummed.com